

Resignation of Chairman

MELBOURNE 29 April 2011. Utilities management provider, Intermoco Limited (ASX: INT), advises that Andrew Plympton has resigned as Chairman and Non-Executive Director of Intermoco Limited effective 30 April 2011 due to increased work commitments and time constraints from his not for profit roles. He is a member of the Executive Board of the Australian Olympic Committee (AOC) and in January this year was appointed to the Board of the Australian Sports Commission (ASC).

The CEO of Intermoco Mr Ian Kiddle said: "On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Andrew for the contributions that he made to the company during his time as Chairman. Since joining the Board as Chairman in March 2010, Andrew has provided both the Board and Management invaluable advice and guidance. We regret that increasing commitments to other organisations has created this outcome.

"The Board wishes to thank him for his contribution and wish him well for the future."

Mr Plympton said "I have enjoyed very much my time as Chairman of Intermoco Limited. The business model of Intermoco is very robust and our most recent result of a positive cash flow quarter is a great result. I have every confidence in the future prospects of the company and wish all stakeholders well for the future. "

A new chairman will be announced early next week.

-ENDS-

For further information contact:

Andrew Meehan
Business Services Director
(03) 9914 7600

---

About Intermoco Limited

Intermoco is an Australian public company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX: INT) based in Melbourne. The company is a leading provider of water, energy voice and data management solutions with a focus on the provision of embedded networks. Intermoco provides a world class end-to-end internet-enabled energy metering and resource management solution to utilities, corporations, local councils and government departments to help them monitor, manage and minimise their consumption of electricity, gas and water.